

What does it mean to be a Title I school?

Things you should know.

Ladson Elementary is a Title I School.

- This means we receive federal funds to provide extra help for all students at Ladson.

Qualifications for a Title I School

- The amount of money we get depends on the number of students who receive free or reduced lunch.

Advantages of being a Title I School

- The money goes to help all students in our school.
- It is used for teachers, tutors, after school programs, books, supplies and materials.
- It provides opportunities for parents to receive training to help their child in school.

Ways You Can Help

- Fill out a free lunch application if you think your family might qualify.
- Apply now or during the school year if your family finances change.
- Attend parent information sessions.
- Volunteer in your child's classroom regularly.

Opportunities for Parents

- PTA Meetings
- Parent Information Sessions
- Volunteer in School/Classrooms

As a Title I School, we rely on the partnership between school and home to ensure that our students succeed. We hope you will feel welcome to be a part of your child's school experience and a part of the success of Ladson Elementary School.
